Who Dat? #SuDat! The Spiritual Unique Divine Artistic and Thankful Suzann Christine is a R&B/Pop/Soul International Recording Artist that has an unmirrored sound that distinguishes her from her coequals. Her retro-like approach to music resurrects a sound that music lovers have coveted for nearly a decade. Known for her versatile, soulful and audacious style, Suzann has been making her rounds in the industry winning awards as the Best Female R&B/Pop singer in 2012, 2017, and 2018 for the Philly Hip Hop Awards and 2022's Best R&B/Pop Singer for the Philadelphia Urban Film Awards. Recently seen on 300 Entertainments Unplugged series and The Renowned Roots Picnic Festival held by the Legendary Roots band, Suzann Christine is known to grace stages in some of the nation's most popular cities, including New York, Atlanta, Baltimore, Miami, Los Angeles and even Toronto to name a few. Additionally, she has shared stages with some of your favorite artist such as Keyshia Cole, PnB Rock, T.I., SWV, Wale, Dj Khaled, Babyface, The Whispers and more. In 2018 she was chosen to pay tribute to the legendary Dionne Warwick during Grammy week at BB Kings and in 2020 she sang background for Patti Labelle for the Essence Music Festival. Suzann has also empowered women at the National Womens March on The Philadelphia Benjamin Franklin Parkway in 2017 and 2018 and has used her voice against gun violence at the national "March for Our lives" rally in Philadelphia. Suzann has been heard on Lifetimes hit dance show "Bring it", Hot 97, WBLS, WRNB, Sirius XM's Shade 45 and The Heat, and BBC London. She also performed on Fox 29's "The Q" show and Good Day Philadelphia and also performed on Catalogz Unplugged on Fox Soul Tv. Suzann currently serves on the board of the Philadelphia Recording Academy Chapter as Governor and gives back to youth in her community through her non-profit SCH Creative & Performing Arts.
